Author's Note

When I took a walk in a small town in Canada, I discovered 22 rare T-shirts from James Dean in a small shop (In fact, I asked the shop owner to make them for me!)! I'm so happy! If he would offer me to work one year for these 22 T-shirts, I would do so without demanding a salary! He was very astonished when I asked him to sell me all the T-shirts. He understood that I'm a big fan of James Dean. As a result, he gave me a present, a poster. Thank you very much. I wear those T-shirts every day for work. Lalala. ♪

Hello, this is Rie Takada Thank you for buying volume 3!

By the time this 3rd volume comes out I suspect most of you will be on summer vacation but I will probably be on the verge of death If plans don't change I'll be finishing up a manuscript

I love motorsports and have even ridden a bike (in the past) The intensity of the F1 is incredible
I've started watching the Canadian GP in June and it's a total blast I never dreamed this could happen, but one time during the Canadian GP I was able to have dinner with Katayama Ukyou senshuu* We talked about a whole bunch of things It was like a dream (I'm embarrassed to say that I bombarded him with one question after another Katayama Ukyou senshuu is waaay manlier in real life than he is on TV! And he answered all my questions very thoroughly I was touched by his good humor and candidness

He is super cool!!
(I'm now a huge fan of his)

WHOOPS !! I should be talking about Hadashi no Arisu vol.3 (The ecchiness continues in this 3rd volume)

I sincerely hope you enjoy this book
